

JUNE NELSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

26th Annual Scholarship Competition Win a $1,200 Scholarship Application Deadline March 24, 2017

The Association of Alaska School Boards is proud to announce its 25th Annual Scholarship Award Competition. The June Nelson Memorial Scholarship is named in honor of the late June Nelson, longtime school board member from Kotzebue. June contributed much to the cause of education, and will be remembered for her outstanding service on behalf of Alaska's children.

This 2016-2017 school year, AASB will award ten graduating seniors each with a $1,200 scholarship to apply toward their post-secondary education. The scholarship may be applied toward the student's choice of a business, trade, or a college institution.

Ten Winners

The Association of Alaska School Boards is pleased to announce its 26th Annual June Nelson Memorial Scholarship Award. Ten $1,200 scholarships will be awarded this year.

Application

The student shall submit the following:

- AASB application form, located at www.aasb.org.
- Copy of high school transcript with cumulative GPA.
- Acceptance letter from a business, trade or college institution. (If you haven't been formally accepted, you may send your application package to AASB without the acceptance letter, but don't forget to send or fax it ASAP or by March 24, 2017.)
- Response to the essay question up to 750 words in length.
- Two (2) letters of recommendation (one from a community member and one from a teacher).
- SAT, ACT or WorkKeys Scores.
- Completed student involvement form.

College Acceptance letters - if the student does not receive an acceptance letter from their institution of choice, one from another school or a housing agreement (anything that shows the student has been accepted) will suffice.

Essay Topic

Your life is a series of stories. Tell a story that has helped shape you or reflects who you are today, and how that will move you into the future. (Example: stories of relationships, events that have happened in your school or community, etc.)

Be a winner!

Six Trait Writing Rubric

Readers for the scholarship essay will use the Six Trait Writing Rubric. This rubric identifies and evaluates six traits, or characteristics, of effective writing on a six point scale, with 6 the highest score and 1 the lowest. The rubric is designed to provide a consistent scoring method based on recognized characteristics of effective writing.

Descriptions of the Traits

- Ideas/Content: This trait addresses the writer's theme along with the supporting details that develop and enrich that theme. Ideas should be clear, complete, and well developed.
- Organization: This trait addresses the structure of a piece of writing including the thread of central meaning and the patterns that hold the piece together. A well-thought out order of ideas should be apparent with a consciously planned opening and closing.
- Voice: The type of voice will vary according to the purpose and type of piece, but it should be appropriately formal or casual, distant or intimate, depending on the audience and purpose.
- Word Choice: This trait reflects the writer's use of specific words and phrases to convey the intended message in an interesting, precise, and natural way appropriate to audience and purpose.
- Sentence Fluency: This trait addresses the rhythm and flow of language. Sentence structure should be strong and varied.
- Conventions: This trait addresses the mechanics of writing, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, and paragraph breaks. It also includes proper format.

An average of 6 or 5: Exceeds the Expectation

An average of 4: Meets the Expectation

An average of 3: Approaches the Expectation

An average of 2 or 1: Falls Far Below the Expectation

The scholarship package must be postmarked by or on March 24, 2017.
