

Note to applicants

AASB search consultants have been asked by boards to make mention of continuity issues present in some applicant packets. Information inconsistencies among cover letters, resumes and AASB's application forms (which we keep on file) can be confusing and distracting to board members.

Please update your application, if necessary, to coordinate contact information (phone, email, mailing address, etc.) and work experience among the various materials that make up your packet.

Thank you.