

Why do a Board Self Assessment?

Timi Tullis and Jenni Lefing AASB Staff

association of ALASKA
school boards

in the middle of difficulty lies opportunity.
-albert einstein

diffi opportunity culty

Why do a Self Assessment?

Types of Self Assessments

Who Participates?

IT'S A PROCESS,
IT'S A PROCESS,
IT'S A PROCESS;
CHANGE TAKES TIME.

Self Assess....

Strengths

Improve?

Focus

Effective

Changes 1 Yr

Changes 3-5

Strengths

Expected Changes?

District Improve??

Yearly schedule of 'to do'

Policy review

Review Goals

Activities

meeting prep could always be better

keep public informed

National Connections

orient new Bd. Mbrs.

good communication

History

Diverse

Better BRD communication

Improve Communication

Scheduling y/y cal.

get a goal

New member orientation

website & info sharing goal / BRD recognize staff / students

policy review

calendar yearly to

Be More Goal Oriented

Learn Roles & Responsibilities

Attend other public meetings

* BRD / goal Strategic planning 3.

INFO sharing

Public Meetings

we're learning

Decrease in student enrollment - decrease in funding

Combining classes & cutting positions

New math Program

Independent Learning

Fund Show

line in

Solar Array

Working with LPSP

Pride in School

New

Bored

line in

Good communication between staff & admin.

Thinking outside the box

tech

4. Active

Bored

line in

Improve from 3* school to 5* school

Higher graduation rate

South Naknek Run (FV)

Preschool Program

sign

line in

Working with other school boards

Work more with other districts

Proactive instead of reactive

BRD / goal

Innovative

Flexible

Combining classes

Cut

Coaching

bully base

Cost

bring

1/2 time

teach

Shaming

"Comm

absent

police

Drug

Focus on Student Achievement

Develop a Board Improvement Plan AND/OR Setting District Goals

SAMPLE!

IMPROVEMENT	WHO	WHEN
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Place the district's mission and vision statements on a placard (table tent) in front of each board member.	Board President to initiate request	Next board meeting
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Clarify and adhere to an appropriate board decision-making process on recommendations presented by administration.	Board and superintendent	January meeting
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Schedule an annual self-assessment as part of the board calendar.Schedule work-sessions to review data from local assessments	Superintendent with Board input. Board	As appropriate Annual
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Schedule a work-session to review the asset framework.	Board	Spring
<ul style="list-style-type: none">An orientation program will be developed for new members.	Board Pres/Supt	Summer

What direction does the Board agree they want to focus on for the next year?

Thank you for attending

Jenni Lefing
jlefang@aasb.org

Timi Tullis
ttullis@aasb.org

Thank
you

How Can AASB Help?

simply contact

Timi Tullis
ttullis@aasb.org