

Kenai Peninsula Borough School District

Seeks Qualified Applicants for Superintendent of Schools

Introduction

The Kenai Peninsula Borough School District is one of the top performing districts in the state of Alaska encompassing 21 communities within 25,600 square miles and serves nearly 9,000 students. Forty-three school programs offer public education in pre-kindergarten through grade 12 including four charter schools and a home school program. Four of the district's schools are accessible only by water or air; one by hiking or all-terrain vehicle. Each school day, more than 2,700 students are transported a total of 7,200 miles on school buses throughout the District.

Superintendent Recruitment

The Board of Education of the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District (KPBSD) is searching for a superintendent. The successful candidate will have outstanding educational leadership and advocacy skills. They will possess and demonstrate a strong background in improving student learning in a culturally responsive and student-centered approach. The board is especially interested in a leader with high integrity who has proven experience as an effective educational administrator and school system leader. The preferred candidate should be able to show positive outcomes for student achievement related to their demonstrated expertise in school district finance and budget management, human resources and effective curriculum and instruction implementation. The Kenai Peninsula Borough School District is perhaps one of the most diverse districts in the state regarding community size, ethnicity, and religious composition. Thus, the successful candidate must respect and work with all constituent groups recognizing the benefit that each stakeholder brings to the District to meet the needs of all children.
