

JUNE NELSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

29th Annual Scholarship Competition 2nd Year Applicants

Win a $1,500 Scholarship

Application Deadline March 16, 2020

The Association of Alaska School Boards is proud to announce its 27th Annual Scholarship Award Competition. The June Nelson Memorial Scholarship is named in honor of the late June Nelson, longtime school board member from Kotzebue. June contributed much to the cause of education, and will be remembered for her outstanding service on behalf of Alaska's children.

This 2019-2020 school year, AASB will award fifteen scholarship winners with a $1,500 scholarship to apply toward their post-secondary education, two of which will be awarded to previous year winners. Winners from 2019 are automatically qualified to apply for the 2020 JNMS Scholarship Award.

Essay Topic

What advice would you give to graduating seniors about the transition from high school to college/business/trade school? What hurdles have you had to overcome and why has the experience been worth it?

Six Trait Writing Rubric

Readers for the scholarship essay will use the Six Trait Writing Rubric. This rubric identifies and evaluates six traits, or characteristics, of effective writing on a six point scale, with 6 the highest score and 1 the lowest. The rubric is designed to provide a consistent scoring method based on recognized characteristics of effective writing.

Descriptions of the Essay Traits

- Ideas/Content: This trait addresses the writer's theme along with the supporting details that develop and enrich that theme. Ideas should be clear, complete, and well developed.
- Organization: This trait addresses the structure of a piece of writing including the thread of central meaning and the patterns that hold the piece together. A well-thought out order of ideas should be apparent with a consciously planned opening and closing.
- Voice: The type of voice will vary according to the purpose and type of piece, but it should be appropriately formal or casual, distant or intimate, depending on the audience and purpose.
- Word Choice: This trait reflects the writer's use of specific words and phrases to convey the intended message in an interesting, precise, and natural way appropriate to audience and purpose.
- Sentence Fluency: This trait addresses the rhythm and flow of language. Sentence structure should be strong and varied.
- Conventions: This trait addresses the mechanics of writing, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, and paragraph breaks. It also includes proper format.

An average of 6 or 5: Exceeds the Expectation
An average of 4: Meets the Expectation
An average of 3: Approaches the Expectation
An average of 2 or 1: Falls Far Below the Expectation

The June Nelson Memorial Scholarship is funded by individual contributions of school board members and administrators from across the state.
