

AASB's 70th

Annual Conference

PARTNERING FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

Please join us for AASB's 70th Annual Conference, to be held November 9-12 at the Hilton in Anchorage. AASB's Annual Conference is Alaska's largest annual gathering of school board members and district leaders in the state. Conference Highlights include:

Two General Sessions with expert keynote speakers, networking & peer learning opportunities (through roundtable discussions, like size district forums, and meals), and over 15 breakout sessions on current topics in the education field.

Experienced Board Member Academy Speaker

Frederick Lane

Frederick Lane is an author, attorney, educational consultant, and lecturer based in Brooklyn, NY. He speaks in the areas of cyberethical issues - discussing emerging technologies and their ethical implications.

Friday Keynote

Troy Hutchings

Troy Hutchings researches, writes and speaks in the areas of professional ethics, educator misconduct and frameworks for ethical teaching practice.

Saturday Keynote

Kristi Swett

Kristi Swett, NSBA's 2023-24 president and a member of Utah's Salt Lake City School Board, has been a tireless advocate of public education for the past 30 years.

Breakfast starts at 7:30 am each day.
