

ASSOCIATION OF ALASKA SCHOOL BOARDS JOB DESCRIPTION

Position Title: Administrative Assistant

Program: Conditions for Learning team

Reports To: Conditions for Learning Director

Location: Juneau

POSITION SUMMARY

The Administrative Assistant ensures the efficiency of the Conditions for Learning team at the Association of Alaska School Boards. The Administrative Assistant develops and maintains organizational systems, processes, and tools to enhance student outcomes.

The Administrative Assistant will work with AASB staff, schools and school districts, grant partners, the Department of Education and Early Development (DEED), families, and other community partners to promote best practices to enhance student outcomes.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Organize and Monitor Systems: Develop, improve and monitor systems for organizing documents, data, and workflow to ensure smooth operations (airtable project management, calendars, purchasing forms).

Create Support Documents: Generate internal documents to facilitate project success and streamline team activities. This requires strong communication skills to work with a remote and in-person team.

Meeting support: Assist with logistics for team and partner meetings. This may include preparing materials, logistics, setting up technology, and food deliveries for group meetings.

Survey Administration: Administer partner surveys, track responses, and manage correspondence related to team projects. Review response and manage response rates.

File Management: Organize, update, and maintain digital files for CFL team.

Workflow Facilitation: Assist in utilizing technology and applications to support the team's workflow and monitor deliverables, including tracking meetings and deadlines.

Travel Arrangements: Arrange travel for key partners and occasionally new staff.

Calendar Management: Maintaining calendars for the team, ensuring all events and details are up-to-date.

Contact List Maintenance: Update and maintain the Conditions for Learning contacts lists.

Team Support: Provide support to other team members as needed. This can include ensuring distribution of materials and working with partners to access resources.

Supplies: Order and oversee office supplies requests.
