Alaska Statewide Mentor Project

Place-Based Education

REACH/REACH Up (Raising Educational Achievement through Cultural Heritage), a US Department of Education (ANE) grant, partnering with Bering Strait and North Slope School Districts in Alaska.

TASK (Teacher Ambassadors Sharing Knowledge), a Native Hawaiian Education grant partnering with Nānākuli-Waiʻanae Complex Area in Oahu, HI and the Lower Yukon School District in AK.

Our goal is to create place-based science curriculum that is responsive and relevant to educators and students.

Alaska Teacher Placement

ATP was established in 1978 as a partnership between school districts and the University of Alaska to serve as a statewide education job clearinghouse for Alaska.

ATP Job Fair Dates and Locations for 2020 - CANCELLED

Sadly, the ATP Anchorage Job Fair, which was to be held on Friday, March 13, and Saturday, March 14, 2019 in Anchorage, was cancelled shortly after the event started by the University of Alaska administration due to recommendations on best safe event practices during the current COVID-19 virus pandemic. Our sincere apologies to both districts and candidates who had arranged their schedules and made plans to attend this event. ATP had no advance notice of the cancellation, and no choice but to terminate the event.

ATP had planned to host three additional Lower 48 Job Fairs in 2020, but two of these (Minneapolis & Portland) have also been cancelled. The ATP Houston has sadly been cancelled as of today (May 19, 2020), but we will update this page should the job fair situation change.

The ATP Facebook page has been the location for a growing number of Virtual Job Fairs using various technologies this spring. Upcoming virtual recruiting events will be posted there, and ATP's Facebook friends and followers will be notified.

- Minneapolis / Bloomington, Minnesota - Thursday, April 2, 2020 - COVID-19 Cancellation
- Portland, Oregon - Wednesday, April 8, 2020 - COVID-19 Cancellation
- Houston, Texas - Thursday, June 18, 2020 - COVID-19 Cancellation

Email Toni if you have questions or concerns, or need clarification on either cancelled events. When details become available for any additional recruiting events for 2021, they will be posted here. Stay tuned.

The teacher shortage is real, large and growing, and worse than we thought

The first report in 'The Perfect Storm in the Teacher Labor Market' series

Report • By Emma García and Elaine Weiss • March 26, 2019

This report is the first in a series examining the magnitude of the teacher shortage and the working conditions and other factors that contribute to the shortage.

What this report finds: The teacher shortage is real, large and growing, and worse than we thought. When indicators of teacher quality (certification, relevant training, experience, etc.) are taken into account, the shortage is even more acute than currently estimated, with high-poverty schools suffering the most from the shortage of credentialed teachers.

Why it matters: A shortage of teachers harms students, teachers, and the public education system as a whole. Lack of sufficient, qualified teachers and staff instability threaten students' ability to learn and reduce teachers' effectiveness, and high teacher turnover consumes economic resources that could be better deployed elsewhere. The teacher shortage makes it more difficult to build a solid reputation for teaching and to professionalize it, which further contributes to perpetuating the shortage. In addition, the fact that the shortage is distributed so unevenly among students of different socioeconomic backgrounds challenges the U.S. education system's goal of providing a sound education equitably to all children.

Get Ready for a Teacher Shortage Like We've Never Seen Before

If we force teachers to return to schools during an out-of-control pandemic, I don't know how many will stick around.
